

Success Grows and Brands Expand...

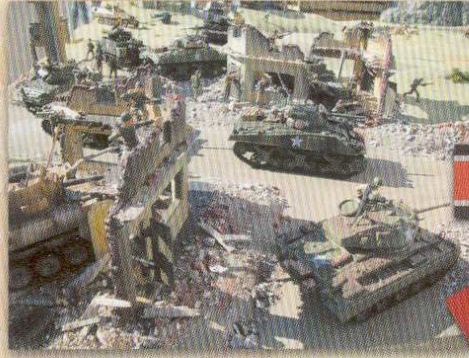

In 2003, 21st Century Toys continues to blaze a trail of innovation and growth as the company - its products and its brands - continue to expand. Beginning with a single product, 21st Century Toys has now grown to over 500 products. Corporate headquarters with their onsite warehousing facilities in the United States provide shipping to domestic and international locations.

21st Century Toys has expanded its product catalog to include several complete lines of action figures, planes, vehicles, uniforms and accessory sets for The Ultimate Soldier®, The Ultimate Soldier Extreme Detail™, The Villains® America's Finest® and The Ultimate Soldier 32X™ brands. These product lines can be viewed in detail at the official 21st Century Toys' website www.21stcenturytoys.com. The website's success has dramatically expanded beyond club members with nearly 90,000 website viewers per month. The average user session has also increased to 7.5 minutes.

21st Century Toys' products are now being sold in hundreds of national retail stores and independent toy shops. There are also many collectable websites that feature 21st Century Toys' items. In 2001, 21st Century Toys was awarded "Best Action Figure Line" and "Best Action Figure Accessory" from Lee's Action Figure and Toy Review Magazine. In addition, 21st Century Toys received the prestigious "Vendor of the Year" award from Toys 'R' Us.

The future looks bright for this innovative toy company. Look for even more hot items and more expansion in 2003, and the years to come.

In the Beginning...

21st Century Toys, Inc. is a family-owned Northern California based toy company specializing in action figure toys of unbeatable quality, authenticity, with special attention to detailing. The company burst onto the scene in 1997 when it introduced the Vietnam Series I & II uniform sets for 12-inch action figures. Over the last five years the company has grown exponentially and is well known among collectors for a wide variety of quality action figures and accessories. 21st Century Toys action figures come in 1/6, 1/18 and 1/32 scale. Action figures include The Ultimate Soldier, America's Finest, The Villains, The Ultimate Soldier XD, and The Ultimate Soldier 32X. Each series of figures, uniforms, weapons & vehicles from World War II, Vietnam and Modern are historically accurate and have unparalleled detailing.

From a Dream to Reality...

21st Century Toys, once a vision of it's creative founders, has become a toy company known worldwide as a leading producer of action figure toys and accessories. The original company goal was to design and produce high quality products that would become the GOLD STANDARD for Authenticity and Attention to Detail™ and that would stand out from the competition to where the customer could Experience the Difference!™ That goal remains today. 21st Century Toys' creative team is comprised of military veterans, historians, and top toy designers that have a devotion to this standard and it has become a commitment for the company.
