MATILDA

The beautiful yet deadly Matilda is a direct by-product of the Cold War. Born as a result of a select-breeding, test-tube experiment in East Germany in 1975, Matilda and six other infant girls (covertly known as "Sister 7"), were raised and trained from birth to be communist bloc assassins by a special projects department of the Stasi, the East German secret police. Horrifying scientific methods similar to those used to create East Germany's super-human Olympian athletes were used on Matilda and her six "sisters" (one her actual twin sister Jacqueline) to turn them into super-assassins capable of penetrating, operating in and liquidating any target in any environment in the world.

After the fall of communism, Matilda and her sisters quietly disappeared into the criminal and terrorist underworld, offering their collective Sister 7 talents to those willing to pay. Much of the assassination work has been done for the Russian mafia, French mafia and certain rogue Third World governments. Sister 7 is considered to be one of the most proficient and deadliest assassination groups in the world today.
