BORIS THE ENFORCER

He's Russia's master criminal. A modern day Russian Dillinger, famed for his ingenious robberies and blood-soaked machine gun and grenade battles with European police units. His rise to the top of the Russian crime world charts wasn't easy. He came up the hard way. First working as a driver for a petty gang of armed robbers who were impressed by his brutal experiences as an ex-Spetsnaz soldier who had fought in the first horrible war in Chechnya. Then, by earning the trust of numerous Moscow mafia leaders by providing them with intelligence, robbing for them and offing their enemies for them. He was so good at the treacherous game of crime that he was soon hired on as an "enforcer" by Moscow's most powerful Russian mafia syndicate, where he became a top "star" at assassinating the competition and making money for the syndicate.

Today, with the immensely powerful protection of the Russian mafia at his disposal, Boris commands his own deadly gang of professional criminals — most ex-KGB or ex-Spetsnaz soldiers. Besides specializing in high-risk robberies in Russia and Europe, they're known to be involved in the Russian mafia's violent expansion into the United States of America. Word has spread in the spidery underworld of America that the Russians are coming...the Russians are coming.
